Centenary Classic Tour Sunday 26th June 2022

FOREWORD

In 1922 Donald and his brother Geoffrey Healey, ran the first TDMC event by closing off a section of road between Truro and Perranporth to run a sprint. The Police turning a blind eye to the closed road. They were also the first ones to use what is now the tarmac road at Blue Hills for a trial.

To celebrate the Club's centenary, we are running the Centenary Classic Tour, an event for classic cars starting and finishing at Healey's Cyder Farm. The road run will be approximately 80-90 miles with lunch at Trebah the home of Donald Healey.

Entrants will be supplied with a tulip type road book enabling them to navigate the route with ease. The first car will start at 10:00am with the remaining starting a one-minute intervals, each entrant who finishes will get a pair of finishers awards on arrival back at Healey's Cyder Farm where the first car is expected at about 17:30.

There will be an award for the best car in the event chosen by you the competitor and possibly other awards.

The Club will be hosting a post classic run buffet event at Healey's from 18:00hrs. There will some guests and the Healey family's vehicles on display. The evening celebration is a 'ticket only' event open to Centenary Tour entrants and TDMC members old and new. Healey's are also creating a TDMC special cyder for the event and thanks must go to Healey's Cyder Farm for their help with this event and supplying the evening buffet at cost price.

The Club are very happy to welcome on board Bob Pepper and Frame Homes who have kindly sponsored this and other Truro Motor Club events for 2022.

Thanks, must also go to Castrol for their help and permission in allowing the club to reproduce the old 50/60's 'poster' depicting an Austin Healey 100/4 at 142.6mph. The 'poster' recreated in aluminium will be on sale at club events.
